

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Washington & Jefferson College Hosts Free Easter Egg Hunt

Washington, Pa. - February 1, 2012 – Washington & Jefferson College invites residents of Washington and the surrounding area to its annual Easter Egg Hunt. All children ages three through twelve can participate.

The hunt will start on the lawn of Old Main (between Beau and E. Wheeling Street) at 12:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 24, 2012. Following the egg hunt, guests can enjoy free face painting and pictures with the Easter Bunny until 3:00 p.m.

“It’s a festive way for the community and college to come together in a timeless tradition enjoyed by all,” says W&J senior Mark Smith, President of the Newman Club. The hunt is sponsored annually by the Newman Club, a W&J student organization offering Catholic students on campus free social activities, opportunities to receive sacraments, retreats, evenings of recollection, and educational series on current religious topics.

About Washington & Jefferson College

Washington & Jefferson College, located in Washington, Pa., is a national liberal arts college founded in 1781. Committed to providing each of its students with the highest-quality undergraduate education available, W&J offers traditional liberal art curriculum emphasizing interdisciplinary study and independent student work. For more information about W&J, visit www.washjeff.edu, or call 1-888-W-AND-JAY.

Contact:

Stacey Haseleu, PR Manager

shaseleu@washjeff.edu

50 South Lincoln Street

Washington, PA 15301

Ph: 724-223-1234

###