WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON COLLEGE STREET FAIR
SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY, MAY 8
PovertyNeck Hillbillies to perform at annual event

WASHINGTON PA – (May 3, 2004) - Washington & Jefferson College announces that its annual Street Fair, organized by the Student Activity Board, will be held Saturday, May 8 from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

As part of the Street Fair 2004, country music recording artists the PovertyNeck Hillbillies will perform a live community concert at 3 p.m. on the lawn in front of The Howard J. Burnett Center on W&J's campus. The winner of W&J's Battle of the Bands will perform at 1 p.m.

"We're excited to be able to offer the College and the community a nationally known band at this year's Street Fair," says Katie Falk, president of the Student Activity Board.

"We've also added to our food booths this year. New options from popular local restaurants will make this great event even better."

More than 20 W&J groups, including Greek organizations, will offer booths and games during the Street Fair. Activities will also include a mechanical bull, "toilet" racers, bouncy boxing, sumo wrestling, and moon bounce.

Local restaurants and organizations providing food booths at the event include: Mr. Gyro's, Applebee's, Big Fella's, Subs Unlimited, The Boy Scouts of America, Western Star Temple, Zonta Club, Starbucks, Garfield's, Brother's Pizza, Krispy Kreme, and Tomsic's Homerun Pizza & Batting Cages.

Street Fair activities will be located on and in the area of E. Wheeling and S. Lincoln Streets on the W&J campus.

THE STREET FAIR IS AN ALCOHOL-FREE EVENT. TAILGATING ON CAMPUS GROUNDS IS PROHIBITED.
